

By His Excellency Dannel P. Malloy, Governor: an Official Statement

*W*HEREAS, the energy needs of Connecticut residents are continuously growing and evolving, and energy use is often overlooked; and

*W*HEREAS, energy generates commerce and fuels economic growth, and is necessary to fuel nearly all aspects of our lives, from heating our homes to lighting the football fields; and

*W*HEREAS, the energy sector provides careers to tens of thousands of residents who serve in every community across Connecticut. Energy careers range from line worker to engineer, construction specialist to accountant, chemist to environmentalist, maintenance laborer to executive - all valued and all essential; and

*W*HEREAS, to promote continuity and meet the challenges of the growing economy, new workers are needed to bridge into the future by replacing retiring workers and maintaining a skilled and engineering workforce; and

*W*HEREAS, through strategic partnerships, the Connecticut Energy Workforce Development Consortium strives to promote a unified and results-oriented effort to ensure people find new and rewarding careers in energy so that Connecticut can continue to grow in prosperity; now

*T*HEREFORE, I, Dannel P. Malloy, Governor of the State of Connecticut, do hereby proclaim October 12-18, 2015 as in the State of Connecticut.
